PremierOne Credit Union Launches Personalized Financial Education Initiative for Members and Employees.

San Jose, CA, November 22, 2019 – PremierOne Credit Union today announced the launch of a mobile-first, personalized financial education initiative through its partnership with the nation's leading education technology innovator, EVERFI, Inc. The Financial Education Program is available as a complimentary resource to help PremierOne Credit Union members build financial health and confidence for themselves and their families.

"PremierOne Credit Union is a strong advocate of financial education, and we are excited to provide this free online financial education program to our members. We want to help our members navigate life's biggest financial milestones. The variety of educational topics will greatly benefit our members by helping them determine which solutions are best suited to help them reach their financial goals," said Richard Tresler, PremierOne Credit Union's VP of Member Services.

This innovative program offers a robust library of learning topics around important personal financial education concepts, including budgeting, investing, homeownership, retirement planning, and more. Each module is 3-6 minutes in length and is designed to enable learners to apply what they have learned to their personal financial goals. The mobile-first design is available on all internet-enabled devices so that learners can access it anytime, anywhere.
