PremierOne Credit Union Appoints Shilpa Edlabadkar as Chief Financial Officer

SAN JOSE, CA (July 24, 2025) — PremierOne Credit Union is pleased to announce Shilpa Edlabadkar as its new Chief Financial Officer. Shilpa brings over 23 years of financial leadership experience in the banking and credit union industries.

She joins PremierOne from California Coast Credit Union, where she served as Vice President of Accounting, overseeing accounting, treasury, budgeting, investments, and payments. Her career includes leadership roles at Capital One and LPL Financial, where she led major M&A integration and modernized financial operations through analytics and automation.

“Shilpa is a transformative leader whose deep experience and strategic vision will be instrumental as we continue to grow and innovate,” said Andrea Brewer, President and CEO of PremierOne Credit Union. “Her proven track record in financial leadership, and process transformation makes her an incredible asset to our executive team and our members.”

“I’m honored to join PremierOne Credit Union at such an exciting time,” said Edlabadkar. “I look forward to working with our talented leadership team to build on the organization’s strong foundation and drive sustainable growth that benefits our members, employees, and communities.”

As CFO, Shilpa will oversee all aspects of PremierOne Credit Union’s financial strategy, reporting, forecasting, and investment management. She brings extensive expertise in balance sheet management, interest rate risk analysis, and investment diversification, and is highly respected for her ability to lead through complex change and transformation.
